Subject No 208.

Establishment of Model farms.

Gangaiya.
„ Srinivasa Rao, Mysore.

Summary of Representation.—In some fertile part of each District model farms may be established, and there different crops especially rice, etc., such as can be harvested in the course of 3 months may be cultivated and practical instructions given for the guidance of the raiyats. Different manures and the various ways of preparing them must also be shown. In addition to this a dairy farm must be opened and the cattle bred and reared therein, and sold to the raiyats for the actual cost.

Reply of Government.—Noted for consideration as circumstances permit.

Subject No. 209.

Encouragement to industrial enterprise.

Mr. Tiruvaimooli Thirunarana Iyengar of the Yadugiri Sadananda Vardhini Sabha at Melkote.
„ Vankata Krishnaiya.
„ Narasimhaswami.
„ Madappa.
„ Hassan Ali Beg, Mysore.

Summary of Representation.– Encouragement may be shown to those who take an interest in industrial, commercial and agricultural enterprises by publishing small pamphlets on the subject and by giving them pecuniary help.

Mr. Tiruvaimooli Thirunarana Iyengar said that an officer or two may be sent to places outside Mysore to collect information as to what should be done in Mysore to encourage industrial progress.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 210.

Revised Rules for the Agricultural Banks.

Mr. Hutcheeregowda of Gubbi

Summary of Representation.—The existing rules on the subject of the Agricultural Banks impose liabilities on all the members of the bank when one member takes a loan and uses it for purposes unconnected with agriculture. They may be so revised as to restrict the liability to the particular member and to extend the time now allowed for the repayment of the loans.

Reply of Government.—Joint and several liability cannot be removed. The case of individual Taccavi advances is different.

Subject No. 210A.

Agricultural Banks.

Messers Guru Rao, Pleader. Shanbhog Chendrasekharaiya and Padmanna of Nanjangud.

Summary of Representation.—Agricultural Banks introduced for the benefit of the raiyats do not afford help to the people in general. It should be made accessible to all.

Withdrawn.

FINANCIAL.

Subject No. 211.

State Life Insurance of teachers in Grant-in-aid Schools.

Mr. S. R. Balakrishna Rao, Advocate

Summary of Representation.—Teachers of the Grant-in-aid schools may be permitted to insure their lives under the State Insurance Scheme.

Reply of Government.—Not possible.

Subject No. 212.

Life Insurance for Patels and Shanbhogs.

Mr. Lingegowda of Nagavala.

Summary of Representation.—The benefit of the Mysore State Life Insurance may be extended to Patels and Shanbhogs.

Withdrawn.